PROJECTS IN PROCESS AND CONTINUING PRODUCTION ACTIVITIES

1. The Cartography Division of OBI is compiling a folio of maps on Communist China; it should be available this coming summer. The format will be similar to the Indochina Folio published in 1965. There will be twelve thematic maps covering topics from administration to vegetation. There will also be five regional maps with shaded relief.

2. The joint DOD-CIA Intelligence Map Program will cover Communist China through about 60 maps 1:250,000. Intelligence data, supplied by many components and selected by OBI is annotated on base maps prepared by AMS. Only one of these maps has been completed to date. An index is available from GH19 Headquarters or Room 902 Magazine Bldg. (ext. 3447). As sheets are printed they can be ordered from the Map Library (ext. 2688 or 6563).

3. NIEs on Communist China currently in process are:

13-3-67	General Purpose Forces
13-5-67	Economic Outlook
13-6-67	Strategic Warning of CC Attack
13-8-67	Strategic Weapons Program

4. [REDACTED] has developed a new input program which enables them to machine-list [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] etc.)). A listing [REDACTED] will be serially produced bi-weekly or monthly. Other types of listings, including unclassified, can be made on request [REDACTED] ext. 5473).

5. Domestic Contact Service is renewing arrangements to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] transmit to Headquarters rapidly changes in academic programs and personalities. In this conjunction [REDACTED]

6. Within a month the DDI Research Staff will issue a report, tentative title of which is "Sino-Soviet Conflict in the World Communist Movement Since the Fall of Khrushchev". The staff is also working on all aspects of the Chicom military picture (purges, structure, military-political issues, etc.). No schedule for report(s) has been made as yet.
